Families Together for Thanksgiving...

Families join in for the Thanksgiving meal with our residents and give thanks for our many blessings.

Music Fills the Air...

Listening to children of the Cumberland County School was a joy and the cards the second graders made warmed so many hearts.

Nottoway County High School bring ornaments and decorate for Christmas.

The Community Center

The Woodland is proud of our ever growing community. The addition of The Community Center will be officially ready in January. The contact information on how, when and where to call will be discussed in our February newsletter.

Thank You

Thank You for Serving!

Veterans were honored with pictures that were made by residents.

Congratulations!

On November 12, Mary A. Lynn was presented with a 60 year pin from the Order of the Eastern Star from New Jersey & North Carolina.

1st Annual Farmville Tree Lighting Ceremony

As a tradition, Farmville has added an annual Christmas tree lighting. The Woodland residents hope to make it a tradition to attend this wonderful event yearly.

Kanika Davis, Ms. Wheelchair Virginia 2014 Visits!

Tea Anyone?

The Ladies of the Courts enjoyed having an afternoon Tea Party while enjoying a special presentation of Antique Fashion Prints courtesy of Alice Bartlett.

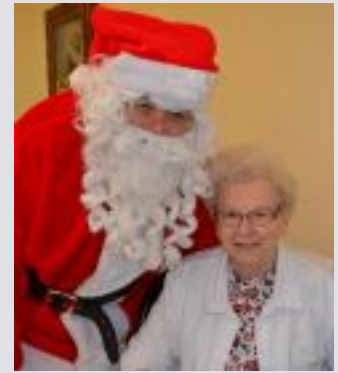

Santa, Mrs. Claus, and two elves, Otis & Earnest Tee joined the residents for Christmas Morning. We hope everyone enjoyed the festivities and food as much as they did.
