Lori Imler, LNHA

Raised an "Army Brat," followed by a tour of duty as a Navy wife, I have enjoyed the opportunity to travel. I have always considered VA "home," but I was born in New Jersey. I have served in senior health care for several years, the last 21 in management and oversight of facilities like The Woodland.

I look forward to the opportunity to meet with all residents, guest and families.

The Woodland is pleased to announce Renee Mills, LPN, LALA, as Executive Director for Assisted Living. Renee joins The Woodland family with a background in hospital and physician's practice nursing. Renee has been a Licenced Assisted Living Administrator for four years. Renee resides in Victoria, VA, with her husband, Ricky, and her three daughters, Shasta, Kacee and Savannah. They enjoy their farm and many animals, including chickens, pigs, cows and dogs.

Word for February: Dally

Merriam-Webster defines as "to act playfully; especially to play amorously." Dallying is also defined as a form of wasting time, or "dawdling." Spend a few February moments exploring your preferred definition, by lingering too long next to a warm fire with your loved ones.

Funny Folks

Laugh Lines

In honor of Valentine's Day, here is what comedians have to say about love and marriage.

"Marry a man your own age; as your beauty fades, so will his eyesight."

—Phyllis Diller

"Marriage has no guarantees. If that's what you're looking for, go live with a car battery."

—Erma Bombeck

"My friends tell me I have an intimacy problem. But they don't really know me."

—Garry Shandling

"Love is a lot like a backache. It doesn't show up on X-rays, but you know it's there."

—George Burns

"I was married by a judge. I should have asked for a jury."

—Groucho Marx

"My wife gets all the money I make. I just get an apple and clean clothes every morning."

—Ray Romano

Wasabi Japanese Restaurant and Christmas Tour of Lights

Mary Cuffle, Marie Powers, Mary Lloyd, Carolyn Patterson and Loretta Reardon enjoying conversation before being served

New Year's Eve spent with Mary Walters, Margy and JR Smith, watching their Japanese food being prepared.

A tour to remember ...

The Woodland Courts' residents left Farmville and arrived at Premier Limo, Lynchburg, which took them on a private tour of the beautifully decorated Bedford's Elks Home. The tour continued on to the Town of Bedford and were amazed at the displays of lights on the lake and the surrounding grounds. In Forest, they were also overwhelmed with excitement by the decorated homes and with laughter, good food and Christmas music in the air, they all felt the spirit of the season had blessed them and was in their hearts.

New Year's Eve Auction!

Do I hear, "$100, now $150, now $200, SOLD" ... "Next item up for bid," says Auctioneer Pumpkin.

Talk About It

First Dates

It's February, a popular month for sweethearts. Do you remember the first time you were struck by Cupid's arrow? Use the questions below to start a discussion about your own dating experiences, as well as those of your friends and neighbors.

- Who was your first date with? Did you ask them out, or did they ask you?
- How old were you then? Did you have to get your parents' permission to go?
- Where did you go on that first date? Maybe a dance, pizza parlor or movie? Did it lead to other dates?
- Did you ever double date?
- What was, or would be, a "dream date" with your special someone?
