The Woodland Residents

Woodland residents recently took a trip to historic Lexington, Virginia. The highlight of the day involved a carriage ride with the Lexington Carriage Company. Passengers were able to traverse the downtown streets in a horse drawn buggy viewing monuments and notable sites. A midday meal was eaten at The Livery followed by ice cream at a local's favorite spot.

The Woodland Gift Shoppe

The Woodland Gift Shoppe is available for all your gifting needs from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday. It is open to residents, employees and visitors. The Woodland Gift Shoppe offers a wide variety of odds and ends including jewelry, cards, collectibles, decorations, signage, novelties, personal care products and more! Cash, check, and Visa or MasterCard are accepted. Residents can choose to add their purchases onto their account, and employees may opt to have their purchases deducted from payroll.

Hatton Ferry Excursion

A group of residents recently visited the historic Hatton Ferry in Scottsville, Virginia. The Hatton Ferry transports riders across the James River. It is the last pole operated ferry in America.

Volunteer Dinner

The volunteer dinner was held at Brookview Lodge this year. The party consisted of a Mexican themed event that included Mariachi music, enchiladas and tacos, piñatas, and a nonalcoholic margarita bar. Volunteers were able to win door prizes that consisted of gift certificates to The Woodland Cafe and Java Station. We thank our volunteers and for all their hard work!

Zumba Gold

Come out and enjoy Zumba Gold! Classes are held every Tuesday and Thursday in the activities center at Brookview. Zumba Gold sitting is at 9:50 and Zumba Gold standing is at 10:20. Zumba Gold is a great way to stay fit and fabulous!

Bon Appetit Club

Are you a Courts resident that enjoys dining out? If you do, then join the Bon Appetit Club for good food and a great time! The club goes once a month to a different restaurant and critiques the service, food, etc. To join or learn more information, contact Trish Wingo at Brookview.

Louise Boswell Turns 104!

Louise Boswell, a Courts resident, recently turned 104 on May 8! She attributes her longevity to good genes!

Watson Celebrations!

The Watson unit often celebrates wild and wacky holidays. They recently celebrated National Zucchini Bread Day and made butter! Residents were able to make their own individual tubs of butter! Contact Robin in activities if you would like to participate in her future activities.

Spring's Here!

Watson Ramblers

If you are making your way down the halls of Holly Manor Monday through Friday at one o'clock, be on the lookout for the Watson Ramblers! Residents are strolling the halls on the Watson Unit and getting their exercise. In June, an awards ceremony will be held to recognize participants. So get on your walking shoes!

Myrtle Dykes

Martha Jo, Clara Baughman, Hazel Garrett, Edna Phillips, Pauline Allen and Rebecca Moore enjoy the spring weather while having lemonade on the patio at Brookview.
