Trivia Whiz

Summer Means Hot Dogs

July is National Hot Dog Month. Easy to prepare, inexpensive and convenient, hot dogs are the perfect food to enjoy at a ballgame, picnic, festival or fair.

The National Hot Dog and Sausage Council estimates that Americans consume 20 billion hot dogs each year.

Although hot dogs are considered an all-American food, it is believed that frankfurters originated in Frankfurt, Germany, in the 1400s.

The most popular hot dog topping is mustard, which is favored by 90 percent of adults. Children tend to prefer ketchup. Other favorites are onions, chili, relish and sauerkraut.

Of all the ballparks in the country, Dodger Stadium in Los Angeles sells the most hot dogs each baseball season.
